Plans for more homes on land set aside for employment

NEGOTIATIONS are under way to accommodate up to 175 dwellings on a site initially earmarked as employment land on the CLR site in Crewkerne.

South Somerset District Council (SSDC) gave planning permission for "a comprehensive mixed-use development" with 525 dwellings, employment land, a primary school, community facilities, playing fields, parkland, landscaping and associated infrastructure at the keysite in January 2011. Permission was given subject to what is known as planning obligations, but the applicant would now like to change some aspects of the agreement.

A report prepared for SSDC's Area West meeting on Wednesday, June 17th, said: "The agreed obligations reflected the district valuer's then advice that the development, including the provision of the link road, the school site, landscaped areas and employment land was only viable with 17.5 per cent affordable houses (all for rent) and circa £8.6million towards planning obligations.

"The applicant believes that in the current market, the approved scheme is now unviable and is seeking to add value to the site by seeking outline approval for a care home and up to 175 dwellings on the 10 hectares employment land approved off Station Road.

"Although the town council and number of local residents have raised objections, there are no outstanding highways, drainage, archaeological, ecological or other 'technical' objections.

"The council's planning policy and economic development officers have raised significant concerns about the loss of 7.5 hectares of employment land.

"There has, however, been no agreement on the necessary planning obligations.

"The applicant maintains that, even allowing for the increased values that would be achieved by the additional residential development, the scheme as a whole remains unviable and they have sought to review the whole obligation package in light of the current application."

A decision will not be made by the Area West Committee on June 17th, however. The matter is on the agenda so that Area West Committee members can "note the progress to date".

The report indicates that government policy favours the applicant.

It said: "The district valuer has assessed the scheme in the round and has concluded that even without any affordable housing the development and allowing for a reasonable developer profit, the development would not be viable.

"It is considered that there are a number of possible explanations for this including increased build costs of the houses, lower than anticipated house prices and substantial costs for unexpected archaeological investigations.

"Notwithstanding the reasons for the current 'unviability' the applicant is entitled to request that the council revisits the planning obligations.

"Government advice is clear that sites with planning permission should not unreasonably be held back by an insistence on previously agreed planning obligations."

According to the report, SSDC officers will seek to; achieve a reasonable balance between the provision of employment land and affordable housing; identify £2,000,000 savings from the identified obligations.

From the editor's chair The battle lines are drawn

WHEN it comes to planning applications the adjoining parishes of Uplyme and Lyme Regis have clashed on numerous occasions.

But it would seem that the latest attempt to build new homes on land, owned by the All-husen family, between Shire Lane and Gore Lane, north of the A352 in the parish of Uplyme, may well see the two communities joining forces to block the development.

Public consultation on plans to build 120 new homes of mixed size and tenure has been extended to June 23rd.

To date, more than 100 letters have been received by East Devon District Council – all opposed and none in favour.

The site is actually closer to Lyme Regis than the village of Uplyme but it is most definitely in Devon.

A planning meeting in neighbouring Lyme last week attracted a crowded public gallery, mainly with those who live near the site.

One person commented that if the plans were approved it would mean "the end of East Devon as we know it". Not sure that the people of Exmouth would be too bothered but it indicated just how strongly local residents feel about this development.

How worried should they be? The site falls outside the agreed building line for both Lyme and Uplyme and is not included, I understand, in the five-year land supply agreed by the two neighbouring planning authorities – East Devon and West Dorset.

Both authorities agree that the site is not suitable for a major development – and 120 new houses comes under the category of "major".

The fact the developers, Hallam Land Management, have said that up to 150 per cent of the proposed homes will be "affordable", which is likely to be welcomed by the Lyme council.

The plans also include the retention and enhancement of the current park and ride, including toilets, which will also be attractive to Lyme.

However, I suspect Uplyme will take a more trenchant view. They may well see there is little benefit to their village and there are major concerns about the effect of such a large development on the rural landscape local infrastructure.

SEATON

Town council backs beach hut tenants

ANGRY Seaton town councillors have demanded that East Devon District Council (EDDC) suspends its ongoing beach hut reform process.

Seaton Town Council will also hold its own consultation to build a case, and liaise with other affected towns to try and form a united front.

EDDC wants to rip up current deals and auction five-year beach hut leases on the open market instead.

Beach huts are currently let on a rolling contract which means tenants automatically get to rent them every year until they no longer wish to do so.

EDDC is currently consulting with beach hut tenants, but the consultation has been heavily criticised for not offering a status quo option.

The EDDC consultation will conclude on July 13th, after which the results will be analysed.

SIDMOUTH

Secret sponsor pays to replace bus shelter

A MYSTERIOUS benefactor has stepped forward with a generous donation to replace the burned-out bus shelter in Sidmouth town centre.

The anonymous sponsor appeared last week offering almost £7,000 – from his own pocket – to pay for a brand new shelter at the Triangle.

The shelter was seriously damaged by fire on Boxing Day last year and had been targeted in a suspected arson attack the previous January.

Budget cuts have left East Devon District Council struggling to replace the shelter, and only a few days ago officers took the decision, on safety grounds, to remove it altogether.

But the shelter will be replaced within a matter of weeks after a "fairly godperson" came forward with the cash.

The kind-hearted resident said: "It's hard to find good causes to give money to, but Sidmouth is a beautiful place and I love living here."

HONITON

Concerns over Turks Head redesign

A LONG-AWAITED redesign of Honiton's notorious Turks Head junction could put pedestrians in even greater danger of a serious accident despite efforts to improve safety, a councillor has warned.

Roy Coombs, chairman of the town council's planning committee, said the proposed new layout, which includes a mini roundabout with a crossing island on Turks Head Lane, would be a "recipe for disaster" for pedestrians if it goes ahead.

Highways experts at Devon County Council have produced plans for a £500,000 redesign of the junction, which has long been viewed as one of Honiton's worst accident blackspots.

Residents living near to the junction have repeatedly called for action to slow traffic.

Town councillors

opted to support the plans but asked for regular reviews of pedestrian safety issues.

OTTERY ST MARY Bus service is saved... for three days a week

OTTERY St Mary's threatened town bus service is to be retained for three days a week on a temporary basis, after county council transport chiefs changed their plans to axe the service.

The essential town link, which serves as a lifeline to many elderly residents, will continue to operate for the rest of the financial year, subject to final approval next month.

Proposals to cut the service entirely were made public earlier this year as Devon County Council outlined £1.7million worth of savings to its public transport budget.

But following consultation with bus users, the council has amended its plans and is now prepared to pay for the continuation of the 381 on Mondays and Thursdays.

Ottery's county council ward member Claire Wright has offered to cover the cost of a third day using money from her designated locality budget.

While still a significant reduction from the six days a week service that was previously provided in partnership with Sainsbury's, Ottery's bus users will welcome the amended plans having faced losing the service entirely.

A spokesman for the county council confirmed the Ottery town bus will be funded for three days a week for the remainder of the financial year but a community solution may be required at a later stage.

Trust organises diary farm trips for local schoolchildren

THE AH Warren Trust Group, based at Coombe Farm near Crewkerne, has just completed another successful programme of educational visits to its nearby Hill Dairy Farm.

During the past weeks, some 420 children from local schools and their teachers have visited the farm, which has a purpose-built classroom.

Fi Madge, who runs the school visits programme for AH Warren Trust Group, said: "We are keen to contribute to the children's education as well as making the visit a fun experience. They learn about the work of an organic dairy farm and about the food we eat through taking part in hands-on activities.

"We have also included some work on rocks and soils and on wildlife with the help of local specialists."

This year's programme has included mapping and orienteering for the first time, which has proved very popular with the children.

Rob Treacher, local schools partnership co-ordinator and keen orienteer, laid out a course in the farm's fields and trained the children to find their way around.

A Greenfylde School pupil wrote to say: "I loved how we had to put the map in the right direction... then we had to rush across the field."

Year 8 pupils from Maiden Beech School learned about orienteering and then had the challenge of teaching younger pupils from St Bart's First School, with great success.

Transport costs from the schools to Hill Dairy were paid for by the Ernest Cook Trust this year, for which the company and the schools are very grateful.

Fi has already begun taking bookings for next year's programme, so any local schools wanting to book a place should contact her on 01460 279519 as soon as possible.

New chairman elected for U3A

ANNE Bright has been elected as chairman Crewkerne & District U3A for the forthcoming year.

Anne, an ex-teacher, her husband Bob and their border collie Oz, moved to Crewkerne when they retired. As well as gardening, Anne is interested in craft, walking and French. She has a daughter and two grandchildren who live in nearby Dorset.

During her time in office Anne is keen to build on what's been done before and she hopes to develop some shared learning projects.

Anne knows the value of the ethos of the U3A, where members share their experience, knowledge and philosophies and learn from each other. She also feels it is important for members to develop new friendships to enrich the quality of life in the third age.

Anne said: "I am looking forward to working with everyone and hope to have more involvement from the members.

"The more people that help, the better our U3A will be. We have new groups in the pipeline which should be exciting. I am keen to hear what the members want."

Art and fishing come together for lecture

THE June lecture of Neroche Decorative and Fine Art Society (DFAS) offered members a fascinating and in depth look at the relationship between art and the fishing industry in Cornwall, and how the Newlyn artists in particular captured the lives of families dependent on fishing.

Lecturer Catherine Wallace MA was curator of Falmouth Art Gallery and has organised many art exhibitions as well as lecturing at various art institutions, particularly in the South West. Her talk covered a wide range of artists who were practising their art in Cornwall, in particular Newlyn, in the late 19th and early 20th centuries.

The audience were shown images of paintings in both watercolour and oils, which illustrated the hard work of fishermen and their wives, as well as the boats they used and frequently the hardships and tragedies suffered by the fishing community.

Artists whose work we were shown included the social realist, Frank Bramley, as well as Stanhope Forbes, both of whose work had caused quite a stir when shown at the Royal Academy. There were also examples of work by Craft, Gotch and Napier Henry, and finally Henry Scott Tuke who became famous for his paintings of every kind of sea-going vessel, all to be found in Falmouth Bay at that time.

Catherine engaged her audience's attention throughout her stimulating lecture, keeping members informed, amused and sometimes challenged.

Her reading of poetry which had inspired some of the paintings was also much appreciated, as was her ease of manner in responding to questions from the audience.

The next meeting of Neroche DFAS will be on Monday, July 6th when the lecture will be "A Brief Illustrated History of Jewellery" kindly sponsored by Bonhams. For more details visit www.nerochedfas.org.uk

Second Mad Hatter's Tea Party to raise funds for cancer charities

LAST-MINUTE preparations are being made ahead of this weekend's Mad Hatter's Tea Party being held in Tatworth in aid of cancer charities.

It will be the second party following on from last year's first successful event at the Tatworth Playing Fields, hosted by the "Mad Hatter" herself, Jill White.

Breast cancer survivor Jill and her friends from the Ribbon Cancer Support, Awareness and Fundraising group have worked hard to prepare for this year's event which will be held on Sunday, June 21st from 10am to 6pm.

There will be plenty of attractions and activities going on for all the family to enjoy, including the annual men versus ladies rounders match for the Angie Gerrard Cup, a barbecue, table-top sale, tombola, Chard Goldstar Majorettes, live music, tug of war, face painting, car boot sale and craft stalls.

Teresa Gay, of Ribbon, said: "This event really is for the whole family – there will be lots of things for the children to take part in and do.

"Chard Majorettes will perform at the event and there will also be tractor rides. There will be live music throughout the day with Stevie Brown, Gabriel Swarbrick and the IOUs.

"This will be a great chance to go along and meet the Mad Hatter, Alice, Queen of Hearts, Tweedle Dee and Tweedle Dum, the Cheshire Cat and March Hare."

If anyone would like to have table there for selling hand-crafted items or a car boot pitch – please contact Teresa on 07990 599 317.

"We have plenty of space for more," said Teresa.

"You will need your own table for this event and we will charge £5 for craft stalls/car boots – but all the money you then raise is yours."

Although the day will provide plenty of fun – there will also be a serious message behind the proceedings. The party is being held in memory of Angie Gerrard, of Chard, who died of cancer on June 6th last year, aged 44 – just days before the first Mad Hatters Tea Party. All money raised will go towards the Breast Cancer Campaign and Cancer Research UK.

It was at last year's Mad Hatters Tea Party where breast cancer patient Maria Wadey, desperately upset at the untimely death of her friend, first suggested the idea of a calendar to raise money for charity and it was there that the successful Calendar Girls and Boys project – which went on to amass more than £10,000 – was created.

With the calendar project having now been done and dusted, the work of Ribbon has taken over with continued fundraising and providing support to fellow cancer patients in the Chard and Ilminster area, along with raising awareness.

Extensive programme planned for fourth South Petherton Folk Fest

SOUTH Petherton will be a hive of activity on Saturday, June 20th when it hosts its annual Folk Fest.

The fourth Petherton Folk Fest will provide a full day of mainly free entertainment for people of all ages – and nearly all of the dancers, musicians and morris sides in the programme come from Somerset and the West Country.

There will also be stalls, food and a craft market and several modestly-priced workshops for those wishing to improve their dance moves or instrumental skills.

The festival will start at 10am with a procession of morris sides into Market Square. At the same time, events will be getting underway in most of the other venues, which include St Peter & St Paul's Church and its grounds, The David Hall performing arts centre, The Brewers Arms pub, The Blake Hall, the yard at the infants' school and the back garden of Burnworthy House residential home, off Hele Lane.

Young sailor from Holyrood takes podium place in RNLL charity race

A YOUNG sailor from Holyrood Academy in Chard took a podium place in the eight-mile coastal challenge in the RNLI Passage Race off the Devon coast.

Ben McElroy, 13, had to sail from Plymouth to the River Yealm in the race, which raised nearly £500 for the RNLI.

The annual fundraiser saw about 50 boats of all sizes race across Plymouth Sound and around the Devon coastline to a finish in the scenic river Yealm.

The Yealm Yacht Club provided the competitors with tea and cake before the competitors turned around and sailed another eight miles back to Mount Batten.

Sixteen miles of sea sailing across south Devon was a challenging experience for the two youngest sailors on a mixed start line of dinghies, multi-hulls the mid-70s to 1997 and also helped to establish the new Folk Fest, will perform the official opening ceremony while Ian Baker, a member of Petherton Arts Trust, which owns and runs the David Hall, will be MC throughout the day.

Highlights of the event for folk music fans will be a performance in Market Square by The Drystones, who wowed crowds at the Glastonbury Festival in 2013, and headlining in The David Hall, the Australian Rory Ellis.

Other gigs will be held throughout the afternoon and there will also be plenty of children's entertainment.

"We have aimed to provide an even more extensive programme for all ages for the fourth Petherton Folk Fest and I feel confident that the events we have booked will keep visitors happily occupied throughout the day," said Pete Wheeler, chairman of the Folk Fest Committee.

The full programme for the day is on the website www.pethertonfolkfest.org.uk

Young footballers battle it out on the pitch

THE Avishayes Combe Football Tournament was held on the weekend of June 6th and 7th at Combe St. Nicholas Football Club.

Set against a stunning backdrop of rolling hills and beautiful sunshine, the Under 9 Pirates narrowly missed out on qualifying for the semi-finals and the Vikings went on to nearly win their own tournament.

Following some closely-fought matches against Martock Rovers, Bridgwater Wolves A and B, Millwey Rise Falcons and Eagles, as well as their good friends, the Avishayes Combe Pirates, the Vikings met Millwey Rise Eagles once again in the semi-finals.

Proving the most tense of all, this match went to nail-biting penalties with the Vikings' training sessions on taking expert penalty shots proving invaluable as they came away with the trophy in their sights.

The final against Bridgwater Wolves B proved too hard for the Vikings to win, but their excellent passing and persistent effort gained them a well-deserved runners-up place and a medal each.

Vikings managers Darren Gage and Paul Reid were hugely proud of their squad, saying: "This team has come a long way. Since forming, when the lads were only five and six years old, they have developed a brilliant bond and we always hear the opposition commenting on their teamwork and maturity.

"We believe our whole squad has great potential to make a real name for themselves in local football and are very proud of all the players."

At the presentations, Martin Fielder, chairman of Avishayes Combe FC commented on the high quality football he had seen throughout the day and congratulated the Vikings on their immense effort and exceptional teamwork. He wished them well for the remaining season's tournaments and is looking forward to hearing some more good results.

Learning about life at Holyrood

PRINCIPAL of Holyrood Academy in Chard, Martin Brook, recently visited Neroche Primary School in Broadway, near Ilminster, to talk to pupils and parents and answer their questions about moving up to secondary school.

Neroche's headteacher, Connel Boyle, welcomed Mr Brook and a group of students to the weekly family assembly before Mr Brook then talked of their shared vision for children's education in Somerset. The heads agreed that they both have high expectations of their students and strive to encourage them to achieve the very best they can at all times.

To showcase the strength of musical opportunity at Holyrood, Year 7 pupil Isabella Swarbrick performed a stunning song for the audience as she played her guitar. The younger children were hugely impressed at her talent and she was inundated afterwards with further requests.

Past pupils from Neroche, Soraya Rowswell and Josh Marsden, also spoke about life at Holyrood and answered questions from the children.

Mr Brook ended the assembly by welcoming all the Year 6 class who are progressing to Holyrood in September, saying he was looking forward to getting to know them in the years to come.

Walking group marks 40th year with festival

THE Chard-based St Mary's Walking Group is celebrating its 40th anniversary with a Walking Festival this week.

The festival started on June 12th but there are plenty more walks to take part in as it runs until the 20th.

The walking group started in 1975 with a ramble between Lulworth Cove and Osmington Bay, and this proved to be so popular that more walks were organised. To this day a coach still leaves Chard on the last Saturday of each month packed with keen walkers, including many of those who took part in the first walk.

To celebrate its 40th anniversary St Mary's Walking Group members have chosen some of their favourite local walks and are inviting all to join them. All walks will start from Crowshute car park in Chard and vary in length from three or four miles up to seven.

The festival will finish on Saturday, June 20th with a celebration tea at 3pm in St Mary's Church Rooms.

For full details of walks, contact Hilary On 07941 631 839 or email walkingwithstmarys@hotmail.co.uk, or visit the website www.stmaryswalks.org.uk

Busy programme for camera club

CHARD Camera Club members have had a busy few weeks, including a visit to the beach in Beer.

They were given pointers on how to improve their ability in composing an image within the camera before taking the photograph (pictured below)

A club spokesperson said: "There was a good turnout for the event, which was supported by 20 plus members. After guidance from member Peter O Shea Senior, they went their own way.

"Many stayed on the beach putting into practise what they had learnt - and many went on to take long exposure images as the light and the falling tide gave those interested the opportunity to capture some interesting images.

"The club night on Thursday, June 4th saw members trying their hands at portrait photography (pictured bottom) with the use of studio lighting. "The tuition was lead by member Charlotte Nadin, who supplied the backdrop and studio lights."

Members also visited Smeatharpe Raceway, near Honiton, to capture images of the meeting's activities.

New members are always welcome. Meetings are held in the Baptist Church Hall, Holyrood Street, Chard, at 7.30pm on the first or third Thursday of the month. Further details can be obtained from Peter Partridge on 01460 66885 or via the club's website at www.chardcameraclub.org.uk

Fundraising for Christmas lights more vital than ever

THE chairman of Ilminster Christmas Lights Committee has said that fundraising is more vital than ever if the town is to continue its amazing festive displays each year.

Clinton Bonner told the group's annual meeting earlier this month that the 2014 Christmas lights display was the most successful yet.

"We had more praise from the public for the lights display and the switch-on night than ever before," he said.

He put this down to the introduction of the white snow-effect lights display on the four-sided roof of the Market

House and also the new LED illuminated spheres in Silver Street.

"We have had to make the move over from the non-replaceable old characters to LED and I have not had one negative comment," he said. "This display is very good for the town - there isn't anywhere else like Ilminster and illuminating the Market House provided a great leap forward."

The team also erected more than 70 Christmas trees around the town.

The meeting heard it had also been a good year on the cash front. There were donations from Ilminster Lions £614, Ilminster Experience £100, Cottage Flowers £500 and Rotary Club £250. In addition, after a collecting tin was stolen from a town shop, the pupils of Greenfyld School decided to help out to replace the cash and raised £148. Shop collecting tins and collections during the Victorian Evening were both up and an appeal was made for more collectors for the switch-on which this year will be one week later than normal, on November 27th.

"With outgoings of nearly £10,000, all fundraising is vital," said Mr Bonner. "And, of course, it all helps to improve the lights for the following years."

He announced further improvements would include a garland in East Street in memory of Ken Harper; a team of friends and family are raising money for a new banner across the entrance into Ditton Street in memory of Viv Joslyn; a new LED banner in East Street; and further spheres in Silver Street. There are also plans to improve the lights in Swan Precinct and at the parish hall in North Street, while new timers also have to be bought.

Mr Bonner paid tribute and there was a minute's silence to Ronnie McQueen, one of the committee founders who died earlier this year; Victorian Night this year will be dedicated to him.

He also thanked Tony Davies who was standing down after 20 years as treasurer; secretary John Bishop and his team for all their work on the lights and trees, and all who had helped financially.

Origami expert impresses Rotarians

NATIONAL origami expert Sean Clarke impressed members of the Rotary Club of Ilminster at a recent demonstration.

Sean began by explaining some of the history behind origami and the different forms that exist. He told members that he had taken up the hobby in his 30s whilst working as a night club bouncer. A carpenter and joiner by trade, Sean said that it was the perfect cure for aggression because of the high levels of concentration and patience required.

As a very tactile art form, he said that it helps to stimulate several different areas of the brain simultaneously, especially with some of the more complex creations which take several months to complete, resulting in a positive impact on mental health.

All of the pieces Sean had brought along were made by using just a single sheet of paper, no scissors and no glue, with the more intricate designs involving several thousand folds.

In addition to simple boxes, flowers and other shapes, Sean had brought along a collection of impressive figurines he had constructed, and a complete nativity set. The club was so impressed that they have invited Sean back later in the year to hold a workshop.

Rotary to host golf day

THE Rotary Club of Ilminster will be holding its popular annual charity golf day on July 28th to raise funds for Children's Hospice South West.

The competition is open to ladies and gentlemen and takes the form of an individual Stableford competition. Eager golfers from across the county battle it out each year for the Rotary Challenge Cup, in addition to the opportunity of winning one of the many valuable tombola prizes donated by local businesses.

Organisers would like to thank generous local sponsors and contributors for their generous support, especially Cricket St Thomas Golf Club.

Entries can be made through the Pro-Shop at the club or directly with Rotarians David Dick on 01460 55940 or email davidenedadick@btinter-net.com, or Peter Smith on 01460 241544.

Jungle rumble in the library!

Crewkerne Library held a "Rumble in the Jungle" session for toddlers to celebrate National Bookstart Week.

The children listened to jungle-themed stories, sang songs and made tiger masks from material donated by The Friends of Crewkerne Library. Free copies of "A Rumble in the Jungle", written by Giles Andreae and donated by The Book Trust, were given to each participant.

The Friends of Crewkerne Library chairman Sheridan Casson said: "It was a fantastic event, enjoyed by children and parents/carers. It was wonderful to see the children singing and joining in with the stories."

"National Bookstart Week aims to encourage everyday reading as a fun activity, supporting parents and carers to build a love of books and reading together from a young age."

"The Friends of Crewkerne Library were delighted to support such a worthy event."

There is a toddler time for pre-school children every Wednesday from 11am in Crewkerne Library.

School kids get 'streewise'

STAFF and pupils at Ashlands and Mistraton Church of England First Schools took to the roads for Child Safety Week.

The aim was to become "streetwise" pedestrians and remind drivers to go slowly past the schools.

Both schools are situated along busy roads in 20mph zones, but staff say drivers frequently flout the speed limit.

School business manager Lisa Carter said: "Even with a daily visual campaign led by pupils at Ashlands we were dismayed and very disappointed that many drivers continued to ignore the speed limit."

Leading up to the campaign, she secured free high visibility jackets from Avon and Somerset Police for all children who walk to school.

Lisa explained: "Printed with the school names, our children were all very excited to receive their jackets which are now being worn daily to and from school to ensure that they are seen, increase their safety and hopefully prick the conscience of road users within the school 20mph zones."

District council to host free family playdays across the area this summer

THIS summer, 20 communities will come to life when South Somerset District Council brings free Playdays to towns and villages right across the district.

From Wincanton to Combe St Nicholas and Henstridge to Long Sutton, a wide range of exciting and fun activities will descend on each community.

South Somerset District Council will be organising the Playdays in 13 communities and providing a small grant to help the other seven locations to organise their own event.

Steve Barnes, young people's officer at South Somerset District Council, said: "We offer these Playdays as a way giving families an exciting range of free activities during the summer holidays. They are a great way of bringing communities together and last year more than 10,000 came along to enjoy free play fun."

"From getting up close and personal with birds of prey to drumming workshops these events will bring a range of free play activities to different communities. Playdays not only increase the range of play for residents but also offer the chance to meet people and make new friends."

"In time our aim is to empower the communities to take on the organisation of the Playdays and we can help with this transition by offering small grants and any support they need."

Councillor Sylvia Seal, South Somerset's portfolio holder for Leisure and Culture, added: "This is part of South Somerset District Council's ongoing work to increase and improve play opportunities for children in the district. Playdays have a special relaxed atmosphere and we hope the communities come out in large numbers to enjoy themselves."

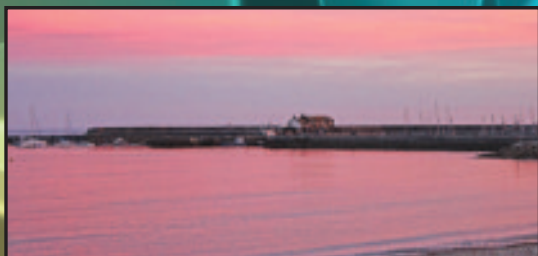

Playdays in the local area will be as

Pulman's girls pampered from head to toe!

MYSELF and a few of the other Pulman's View girls were lucky enough to exchange a usual day in the office for a luxury spa break at Cranberries Hideaway in Kilmington last week.

Although we tried to convince our colleagues this was no "jolly" and was "strictly for work purposes only", it was hard to even believe ourselves as we sank into the relaxing bubbles of the hot tub, sipped on Prosecco and let the stresses of work fade away with our spa treatments.

I had never been to Cranberries before but had heard lots of good reports from friends and family, and I was not disappointed as we pulled into the renovated 18th century dairy farm and soaked in the stunning views of the rolling East Devon countryside.

Set in over 100 acres of private land, owner Steve Little and general manager Verity Charles have renovated the stone barns at Cranberries to create self-catering and bed and breakfast accommodation of the highest standards, as well as a wedding venue with unrivalled views of the area and luxury honeymoon suite.

Steve and Verity greeted us with a warm welcome before giving us a tour of the site, and we were spoilt for choice when it came to picking our rooms for that night, each beautifully decorated with comfy beds, modern en suite bathrooms and some even with their own free-standing bathtubs in the bedrooms.

To top it off, Cranberries has recently opened its Hideaway Spa offering a wide range of treatments using high quality brands, including Elemis, the leading British spa and skincare brand; Crystal Clear skin rejuvenation technology; Jane Iredale mineral makeup; St Tropez tanning products and OPI hand and foot treatments.

As well as favourite spa and beauty treatments, the Hideaway Spa includes a jacuzzi bath and steam showers for individual use and will soon be branching out into more specialist treatments, such as laser hair and tattoo removal.

Spa manager Jessica and her team showed real enthusiasm for their work and spoke passionately about the products used. Their professionalism, expertise and the relaxing atmosphere put us completely at ease.

In the morning, we were each treated to a stress-busting back massage and a refreshing facial using the delightfully-fragranced Elemis range and, after tucking into a delicious buffet lunch and one (or two!) more glasses of Prosecco, it was back to the spa for manicures and pedicures leaving us completely pampered from head to toe.

After all that hard work it was time to chill out in one of Cranberries' many hot tubs and time seemed to slip away as we looked out over the surrounding countryside – a view you just cannot get bored of. Eventually we pulled ourselves away for dinner before a peaceful night's sleep.

The hot tubs are a favourite feature for visiting hen parties, which have quickly become a specialty of Cranberries thanks to the flexible range of special activities on offer, meaning each party can be tailored to suit every type of "hen".

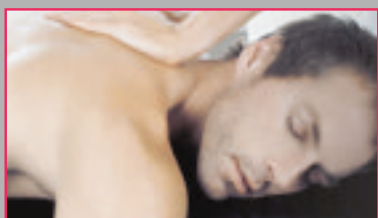

The rural getaway – with accommodation ranging from rooms for individuals, couples or families up to renovated barns sleeping 16 – has also become a popular destination for larger corporate parties and, of course, is now one of the favourite wedding venues of the area.

And Cranberries' success is surely only set to soar further as renovation continues with plans to further expand the spa facilities and open a restaurant with hearty, homemade meals as its staple.

So if you're looking for a quick beauty fix or a head to toe makeover, there can be few finer settings for a relaxing day out than Cranberries Luxury Hideaway.

Crowds flock to RNAS Merryfield for open evening

THE Royal Naval Air Station at Merryfield basked in fantastic weather for its annual open evening last week.

More than 2,300 – twice as many as in 2014 – took advantage of the glorious conditions to visit and find out what happens at RNAS Merryfield, near Ilminster. RNAS Merryfield is the satellite airfield for the main Fleet Air Arm base, RNAS Yeovilton, 13 miles away, near Ilchester.

Much of Yeovilton's procedural helicopter flying training takes place at Merryfield but many people do not know where the base is, or what it is used for. Once a year – resources permitting – Merryfield stages an open evening to "tell all".

Claire-Louise Hutchinson, from Ilminster, was with her two sons Cameron, seven, and four-year-old Fraser. She said: "We are used to seeing the aircraft flying over our home and we like to come and support the military efforts every year."

As Fraser and Cameron patiently joined the longest queue of the evening to get in the static Sea King, Claire added: "It's a great evening and so nice for the boys to get up close to the aircraft."

Becky Hoare, from Chard, was at Merryfield with her son Kaleb Morris, five, and his two friends Benjamin Doel, also five, and Owen Lee, four, and their mothers.

Becky said: "It's our first time at Merryfield and the boys are having a great time, they are really excited it's hard keeping up with them. We saw the poster on Facebook and thought we would come along and take a look, I'm glad we did."

Abi Bond, mum to Owen, added: "It's a brilliant evening the kids are loving it and proudly wearing their Black Cat stickers and face paints."

RNAS Yeovilton currently has aircraft deployed around the world. In addition to the more obvious tasking, they are involved in operations ranging from counter-narcotics and counter-piracy to a contingency presence in areas such as the Arabian Gulf, the South Atlantic and the Mediterranean.

The military's flying training requirement to support this front-line activity is intense. Merryfield accommodates much of the Commando Helicopter Force, Aviation Reconnaissance Force and Maritime Lynx and Wildcat Force training that cannot take place at Yeovilton because it provides a full fixed wing flying capability.

Many years of experience show that intensive helicopter flying training and fixed wing operations do not mix.

Maintaining flying skills and readiness for operations is a demanding and exacting task and, as many who live in the Merryfield area know, it is sometimes noisy.

Yeovilton's community relations officer, Jeremy

■ LOOKING SMART: The Ilminster Squadron of the Air Training Corps in front of the Sea King Mk4

Greenop, said: "We acknowledge the impact our operations at Merryfield has on the local community and we do all we can to minimise the disturbance while maintaining the operational effectiveness of our aircrew."

"Having visited many parishes in the area, I believe we have the overwhelming support of the people in the local community but it is inevitable that some people are not as enthusiastic about what takes place at this airfield, but it is worth remembering that we have been operating helicopters at Merryfield since 1971."

Other than the aircraft, one of the main attractions was the Royal Navy Presentation Team's "Fit for Life" caravan in which Royal Marine Colour Sergeant Chef Mike Beaton, 43, demonstrated simple but healthy cooking options while describing the importance of good food for keeping the men and women of the Royal Naval Service fit for life and – for the Royal Naval Service – fit to fight.

At the start of the evening, the Ilminster Model Flying Group provided an exciting flying display with an impressive variety of aircraft.

The ground displays included the Yeovilton fire station's exhibits with an example of the largest RN fire fighting vehicle (the MFV), regular RN Fire vehicles and a fire prevention display; a Royal Marine Commando field equipment display including a field hospital and weapons display; the Royal Navy Aircrew Survival & Evasion Section's equipment; the Royal Navy Presentation Team; the British Horse Society; Somerset Road Safety; the Taunton Vale Cycle Racing Club that, as well as their ultra modern carbon fibre racing bicycles, displayed some Classic Cars from the 30s.

In addition, 2381 Ilminster Squadron Air Cadets gave invaluable assistance to the Merryfield staff throughout the evening.

AgustaWestland, whose helicopters regularly use RNAS Merryfield, provided three aircraft in the static line-up including an Italian Military Search and Rescue EH101, a Wildcat HMA Mk2 and an AW 109E.

The finale flying displays showcased, a Chipmunk from the Royal Navy Historic Flight and the highly acclaimed Black Cats display team flying, for the first year, the Wildcat HMA Mk2 helicopter.

On completion of the flying displays, the static aircraft dispersed in front of an enthusiastic and knowledgeable crowd with a stunning sunset backdrop.

Residents and visitors enjoy Ilminster Experience

■ A LITTLE TIPPLE: Honey Pot Farm served up their cider

ILMINSTER residents and visitors turned out in force over the weekend to join in celebrating the eighth Ilminster Midsummer Experience (IMEx).

Now firmly established as a major event in Ilminster's calendar, the market town was decorated with dozens of flags representing all it has to offer for the event.

Over the three days, a wide range of events were on offer, the majority of them free, and supporting a number of local charities.

In addition to the popular classic vehicle show and a family dog show, there were strolling garage sales to tempt buyers into picking up a bargain, heavy horse rides and, new for this year, a community lunch hosted by the Rotary Club of Ilminster that saw 100 sit down together for a Somerset pork casserole supplied by The Shrubbery Hotel, and cider generously donated by Perry's Cider, whilst the crowds, including new MP for the Yeovil constituency Marcus Fysh, were entertained by Yeovil Town Band.

Visitors also included a party from Ilminster's twin town Riecc-sur-Belon, hosted by new mayor Councillor Rose Neave with held from members of Ilminster Scouts. The French guests were greeted by the choir of Neroche Primary School.

Petherton Folk Festival 2015

THE 4th Petherton Folk Fest on Saturday 20th June will provide a full day of mainly free entertainment for people of all ages – and nearly all of the dancers, musicians and Morris 'sides' in the programme come from Somerset or other West Country locations. There will also be stalls, food and a craft market and several modestly-priced workshops for those wishing to improve their dance moves or instrumental skills.

The Fest will start at 10am with a procession of Morris sides into Market Square. At the same time, events will be getting underway in most of the other venues, which include St Peter & St Paul's Church and its grounds, The David Hall performing arts centre, The Brewer's Arms pub, The Blake Hall, the yard at the infants' school and the back garden of Burnworthy House residential home, off Hele Lane.

Iain Wilkinson, who was involved with the hugely successful Petherton Folk & Craft Fair that ran from the mid-70s to 1997 and also helped establish the new Folk Fest, will perform the official opening ceremony while Ian Baker, a member of Petherton Arts Trust – which owns and runs The David Hall – will be MC throughout the day.

Highlights of the event for Folk music fans will be a performance in Market Square by The Drystones – the University-age duo who wowed crowds at the Glastonbury Festival in 2013; and, headlining in The David Hall, the Australian Rory Ellis, billed as the 'quintessential alternative country artiste' and so popular at numerous UK festivals that he has moved to live in Devon! The Drystones will close performances on the main stage in Market Square at 6pm while Rory Ellis is billed as the final artiste at the end of an afternoon programme in The David Hall.

At 12 noon, Iain Wilkinson will invite visitors to join in the Clipping of the Church, a tradition which he has worked hard to reintroduce in order to maintain some of the ancient customs that date back to 1231, when South Petherton held its first village fair. Music inside the church will include the English a cappella Folk group, Freshly Ground, and Stanchester Quire.

Throughout the afternoon, fans of Folk music will be able to enjoy about 20 gigs in different locations. They include Willowen, the quirky Indie-Folk trio from Bournemouth who are making their third appearance at Petherton Folk Fest with a gig in The David Hall, and Stampita, five Taunton-based musicians who perform original and traditional songs and tunes on a wide variety of instruments and will be at The Brewer's Arms for the final event of the day, Playing from 9 – 11pm.

Entertainment for children is being organized at several venues, starting at 11am with a Morris dance workshop in the infants' school yard. Many attractions for youngsters will be located in the church grounds and Angel Heart Theatre is booked to give puppet performances – to 'kids of all ages' – in The Blake Hall.

A Laughter Workshop, for children and grown-ups, will be held in the back garden at Burnworthy House residential home, off Hele Lane, from 11 – 11.45am. There will also be arts and crafts for children from 11am till 2pm; Punch & Judy at 12.30 and a puppet show from 3 till 4pm.

"We have aimed to provide an even more extensive programme for all ages for the 4th Petherton Folk Fest and I feel confident that the events we have booked will keep visitors happily occupied throughout the day," said Pete Wheeler, Chairman of the Folk Fest Committee, adding: "We look forward to seeing our regular supporters and, all being well, and increased number of Traditional dance and music fans from further afield."

The full programme for the day is on the web-site www.pethertonfolkfest.org.uk

THE events on Pixie Day are based on a legend, which says that Pixies used to rule Ottery. Then 500 years or so ago, they heard that bells were to be hung in the church. They had already tried to prevent the church being built without success, but bells were the last straw, as Pixies cannot abide the sound of bells. So they did everything in their power to prevent them being cast, without success again. So when the monks who lived in Ottery went to fetch the bells from Exeter, they cast a spell on them as they came close to Ottery, which caused them to carry on towards Sidmouth and the sea.

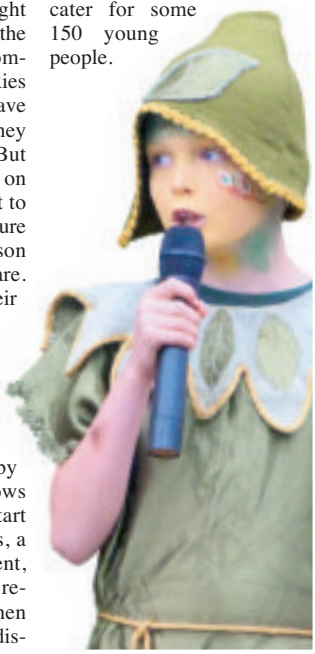

But just as they were about to go over the cliff, one of them stepped on a thistle, which made him shout out 'God bless my soul and Saint Mary'. This happened to be the magic phrase which broke the spell and the bells were brought back to Ottery and hung in the tower. Having failed completely in their aims, the Pixies then went off to live in a cave by the river, where they have lived ever since. But once a year they come out on the Saturday nearest to Midsummer's Day and capture the bellringers and imprison them in a cave in the Square. Luckily, they don't stay their long, as someone remembers the magic phrase which releases them.

This action will take place at about 6:30pm on 21st June, with the parts of the Pixies being played by Brownies, Cubs, Rainbows and Beavers. Events start 2:30pm, with games, stalls, a Pet Show and entertainment, and continues after the re-venge until 10:15pm when there is a firework display. The fete includes a beer tent and refreshments. The surplus is divided equally between the Guide and Scout Movements in the town, which cater for some 150 young people.

NATIONAL CARE HOME OPEN DAY

CARE HOME OPEN DAY 19TH JUNE 2015 – THE ARTS & VALUING STAFF

FOR the third year running, Care Home Open Day will be taking place, and this year is being held on 19th June 2015, promoting the themes of The Arts and Valuing Staff.

Supported by a group of leading care providers, associations, charities and care regulators, Care Home Open Day aims to reinforce the connections care homes have across their local communities, as well as challenging misconceptions about residential care and showcasing the excellent services that are at the heart of communities across the UK.

To date, Care Home Open Day has proven to be a great success and the event is growing year-on-year, with more care homes signing up to take part each time.

Professor Martin Green OBE, chief executive of Care England, said:

"Care Home Open Day is an important event to participate in. It is a great opportunity for the public to see the range of care services at the heart of their communities and for care homes to establish valuable connections."

Paul Burstow MP, commented:

"Care Home Open Day is a great way of demystifying care. Many people have fears about care homes that are not based on experience. I hope more people than ever will cross the threshold of their local care home and find out what the team are doing to deliver great care."

David Cutler, Director, The Barings Foundation, stated:

"The Baring Foundation has been focusing our arts funding on work in care homes as we believe it has the power to give meaning, purpose and joy to anyone working or living there. We are delighted that this is the theme for this year's Care Home Open Day and would like to encourage everyone to get involved."

THE MANOR HOUSE

THE Manor House is run as a small family home with the emphasis on the provision of quality individual care in a comfortable, safe and cheerful environment. The organisation and management of the home are the means to achieve that end.

Dr. Curry is a chartered psychologist with many years experience dealing with the rehabilitation of brain-injured individuals, whilst Mrs. Curry is an RGN with many years of specialist practice. Her experiences as ward Sister have been invaluable training in the management of staff and resources.

The Manor Houses latest Care Quality Commission inspection report was rated as a 3 Star or Excellent Care Service. The Manor House is a private residential care home which strives to provide the highest standard of care and permanent accommodation for 15 elderly individuals.

At The Manor House it is their aim to provide individual care in a comfortable, safe and cheerful environment where residents' individuality, privacy, dignity and freedom are respected.

NATIONAL CARE HOME OPEN DAY

ABOUT THE OPEN DAY

Care Home Open Day is a UK wide initiative inviting care homes to open their doors to their local communities.

Thousands of care homes across the UK take part each year, welcoming the public and arranging events and activities that help to create lasting links between care home residents and their local communities.

This is all about showing people what excellent care homes are really about and how they can be at the centre of local communities, developing relationships across the generations.

We're making some positive noise - and we want you to be part of it!

WHAT DO WE WANT TO ACHIEVE?

Care Home Open Day is about connecting people! We want to enrich the lives of the UK's care home residents by reminding people that care homes in every community are filled with unique, intelligent and charming characters, and run by special people that really do care.

But don't just take our word for it - we want to see you on June 19th 2015 - visit the National Care Home Open Day website to find a home near you and see what they're planning for the big day! In the mean time, we need you to get involved and help us by spreading the word - just like us on Facebook or share with your friends on Twitter, and together we'll make a difference that lasts!

The Beehive is looking for volunteers

BUILDING upon the success of their past year, The Beehive in Honiton is inviting members of the public, who may have some spare time and skills that they are happy to share with their local community centre, to an informal meeting at the centre. They have a great group of friendly volunteers and are looking to expand as a result of the Beehive's growing popularity.

The informal evening on Monday, June 22nd at 7.30pm in the cafe bar is for people to find out what is involved in the running of a busy, thriving, community centre, and a chance to meet some of the team and suss out the diverse range of opportunities and skills that one can learn or bring to the Beehive.

Volunteering should be a two-way process – the volunteer enjoys the task and has rewards in seeing other people enjoying themselves; there is also the sense of achievement in using skills and in working with others. The Beehive is an attractive place in which to spend time and join in the community.

Many people are in employment or have other commitments but there are a variety of volunteering opportunities that can fit around your schedule.

The Beehive's volunteers help in the reception/box office, front of house, stewards, café bar staff, room set-up, technical, admin and publicity. A Duty Manager is available at all times that the volunteers are in the building, ensuring that there is no lone working and there is always someone to ask for advice. Full training is given.

Everyone is very welcome and there are tasks great and small, no commitment necessary but very welcome!

A classic jazz line-up at Arts Centre

Vasilis Xenopoulos

THE Vasilis Xenopoulos Quintet are an extremely well established group featuring a classic line-up, of tenor sax, guitar and Hammond organ. It's a combination that been used with great success by many top exponents in the past, and one that this band uses to very great effect. Vasilis Xenopoulos plays sax, Bill Mudge is on Hammond, and Nigel Price on guitar. The quintet also features a trumpet and drums, with Steve Fishwick, one of the UK's most impressive younger brass players, and Pete Cater, a leading percussionist from the London scene. This will be an evening of 60s nostalgia and brilliant music - think of Jimmy Smith and "Walk on the wild side".

Saxophonist Vasilis Xenopoulos formed his first Quartet in 2005 and established himself as one of London's up and coming jazz saxophonists. As a jazz musician he has worked with some of the best musicians in the British jazz scene, such as Jim Mullen, Steve Waterman, Alan Barnes, Derek Nash, Bruce Adams, Martin Shaw, Nigel Price, Ray Gelato and many others. He is currently lead tenor in the Steve Taylor Big Band, and in the Ealing based Sound of 17 Big Band. His explosive style means he is in great demand as a saxophone player for popular music and as a session musician.

Steve Fishwick is considered to be one of the best jazz trumpet players ever to come from the UK, and is gaining a global reputation thanks to his flawless technique, and his beautifully flowing, harmonically rich improvisations. Trumpet great Wynton Marsalis recently said about him "Steve has his own style. He plays from the bottom to the top of the horn whilst maintaining the integrity of the chords. I can't think of another trumpet player that can do what he does." Steve has played with most leading jazz musicians such as Sir John Dankworth, Peter King, Mike Carr, Jools Holland and Jamie Cullum. He was named the 2002 British Jazz Awards 'Rising Star'.

The Vasilis Xenopoulos Quintet play at Ilminster Arts Centre at the Meeting Houses on Friday, June 26th at 8pm. Tickets are £16 (pre-show supper £12 at 7pm but must be booked in advance). For more details or to book call 01460 55783 or visit the website at www.themeetinghouse.org.uk

Don't Believe a Word

HE'S widely acknowledged as one of the best writer-performers of comic songs in the country, and the Marine Theatre warmly welcomes Mitch Benn's acclaimed show from last year's Edinburgh Fringe, Don't Believe a Word, on Saturday, June 20th.

Mitch is a stand-up scouse comedian, novelist, radio presenter, TV personality, and science-fiction enthusiast. The satirizing musical writer and performer of BBC Radio 4's The Now Show, and It's Been a Bad Week for BBC Radio 2, debunks myths and exposes nonsense in this national touring show. He believes in taking an evidence-based approach to life. He's a sceptic - 'but don't take my word for it.' He'll try to convince you of the virtues of his philosophy through his wit, charm and of course a few songs (and a rumoured dance routine!). It's a show that'll make you laugh a lot and think a bit.

The Now Show aside, Mitch has recently co-presented with Harry Shearer BBC Radio 2's 'Anatomy Of A Guitar' as well performing 'Mitch Benn Is The 37th Beagle' and presenting 'Spank The Plank' both for BBC Radio 4. An occasional series where Mitch takes his unique and quirky look at a few more rock icons has been commissioned by Radio 4 for 2015.

The Young'uns

An irresistible set from the folk group of the year

THE Young'uns come to Honiton's Beehive on Friday, June 19th, a Teesside trio who have been taking the folk world by storm with a recent five star review in the Guardian and BBC Best Group 2015 folk award alongside other accolades. With their three-part vocal harmonies, sometimes with guitar and accordion, and side-splitting banter this will be a superb evening's entertainment and booking in advance is highly recommended (£8 or £10 on the door).

Colin Irwin of Spiral Earth had the following to say: "Nobody sleeps when The Young'uns are in town. They may have established their fast-growing reputation in the folk world with sublime a cappella harmonies, but the Teesside trio – Sean Cooney, Michael Hughes and David Eagle – are an unlikely force of nature on stage, beguiling audiences with irrepressible humour, bold vocals, gripping story-lines and innate musicality. Describing their gigs as 'absolute chaos', they go on stage without set lists, relying on infallible instinct and their unique rapport with audiences to deliver a killer show."

Their music is rooted fiercely in Teesside – especially, Stockton – where they first started singing together at the local folk club, although they spread their wings on their glorious album, When Our Grandfathers Said No, which includes a stomping French song, 'Pique la Baleine', a gorgeous unaccompanied arrangement of James Taylor's 'You Can Close Your Eyes', some nifty instrumental work, a couple of rollicking shanties and plentiful strong original material from Sean Cooney. 'When Our Grandfathers Said No' is a line from one of his most compelling songs, 'The Battle of Stockton', recalling an incident in 1933 when Oswald Mosely's Black-shirts targeted deprived areas as potential fascist hotbeds and marched over the Tees – to be physically repelled by 2,000 outraged Stockton townsfolk.

The Barmy Army is undertaking its inaugural tour of England and Wales this year, which will include a Cricket match at Axminster Cricket Club, Cloakham Lawn, on June 24th.

Paul Burnham, MD and co-founder of the Barmy Army said "We are delighted to be supporting the Lord's and Lady Taverners, particularly during an Ashes summer and the Barmy Army's 20th Anniversary year".

The match will raise funds for the Lord's Taverners to help in their work supporting children with special needs. ## First class entertainment at Beer Wurlitzer show

JOHN Mann, one of the South's foremost organist entertainers whose musical career has spanned over sixty years, made a welcome return to Beer on June 13th. He commented: "The Wurlitzer is now amazing to play, so enjoyable and so different from my first show at Beer several years ago."

John cleverly demonstrated the organ's extensive percussion repertoire with a varied programme of medleys of dance music, show tunes and old favourites and also delighted the audience with his skill on the piano. His music was enhanced with visual clips from films and concerts and his amusing rapport with the audience made for a happy afternoon. His programme concluded with a 'Songs of the Sea' singalong which was enjoyed by all.

On Saturday, July 11th, Trevor Bolshaw, internationally acclaimed concert and broadcasting organist and President of the Friends of the Beer Wurlitzer, will be presenting an afternoon of music for all. Shows which start at 2.00pm are held at the Congregational Church, Fore Street, Beer, EX12 3JQ - admittance is £7.00 on the door (which includes interval refreshments) and children under 16 are free. For further information phone 01297 24892 or visit www.beerwurlitzer.org.uk.

International harpist Robin Ward to perform Sidmouth concert

Robin Ward

THE Exeter Recorder Orchestra will be presenting its Summer concert on Saturday, June 20th at 7pm, performing in the Sidmouth Methodist Church conducted by Andrew Collis. As part of the programme, international harpist Robin Ward will be joining them to perform Handel's Harp concerto. He will be performing the concerto on the rarely heard triple strung harp, the type of harp that Handel originally wrote his harp concerto for.

Originally from New Zealand, Robin currently resides in the UK where he regularly performs as a soloist on various types of harp of his own construction, specialising in the playing of the triple-strung harp - A type of harp predominantly used in art music through the 17th and the first half of the 18th Century.

Robin initially learned to play the lever harp, before moving onto the pedal harp, on which he completed a Bachelor of Music at Victoria University of Wellington, under the guidance of the principal harpist of the New Zealand Symphony Orchestra. He then went on to complete a Masters of Music in Performance on the Triple Harp, which is a chromatic instrument with three rows of strings, instead of one, with no pedals or levers. Due to the prohibitive cost of buying a triple harp, Robin took a typical Kiwi approach, and ended up building his own instrument. Later he taught himself how to play it from surviving sources.

The Exeter Recorder Orchestra, which numbers some 30 players, includes instruments ranging in size from the tiny sopranino recorder to the 6 foot tall great bass alongside of the more familiar descant recorder.

The programme will include adoptions of pieces including Gershwin's Summertime, Mendelssohn's Nocturne from 'Midsummer Nights Dream' - the horn solo being played by Shirley Brown, and Peter Warlock's Capriol Suite.

Tickets are available at Paragon Bookshop, Sidmouth at £8 adults £4 under 18.

The Ben Waters Band bring boogie woogie rock 'n' roll to Marine Theatre

DESCRIBED by Jools Holland as 'one of my favourite bands', the Marine Theatre excitedly welcomes The Ben Waters Band Rock'n'Roll Piano, with special guests, through its doors on Friday, June 19th.

Jools Holland asked him to perform at his wedding, he performed at a birthday party for Hugh Laurie, and Ben and his band have played at countless prestigious weddings and corporate events all over the world, bringing their own amazing and original version of authentic rock 'n' roll to the party.

Ben and his band have also performed for royalty and have toured world-wide, including Canada, Europe, Scandinavia and the States, where Ben played in the Lincoln Center and on Broadway in New York with the ABC&D of Boogie Woogie. (The A being Axel Zwingenberger; B – Ben Waters; C – Charlie Watts; D – Dave Green).

Ben performed at the Royal Albert Hall on 1st November 2013 alongside Ronnie Wood at the fabulous Blues Fest, and his band were selected by Ray Davies as one of his favourites, when Davies curated the wonderful Meltdown Festival at the Royal Festival Hall 60th Anniversary.

He has had a remarkable apprenticeship, having worked and recorded with many of the legendary greats of the rock 'n' roll generation – The Rolling Stones, Chuck Berry, Jerry Lee Lewis, Shakin' Stevens, Jools Holland, Ray Davies and many others. Ben and Tom played on Broadway, New York last summer at the iconic Les Paul's Iridium Club, and have just returned from a phenomenally successful tour of Singapore, Australia and New Zealand.

Ben Waters

Ben recorded his album "Boogie for Stu" at Jools Holland's studio (which Jools donated freely) – a commemorative album in honour of the late Ian Stewart, family friend and founder of The Rolling Stones, all of whom, along with Jools and P-J Harvey are featured in the CD. It has topped blues and rock 'n' roll charts world-wide since going on sale, with proceeds from sales and Ben's advance going to the British Heart Foundation in Stu's memory. The CD cover painting of Ian Stewart was created by Sir Peter Blake who has donated a further £10,000 from print sales to the BHF in memory of Stu.

The Ben Waters Band play at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis this Friday, June 19th. Doors open 7.15pm with music from 8pm.

Tickets are £14, or £12 concessions. To book tickets, contact TIC on 01297 442138 or visit www.marinetheatre.com

RURAL THREE BEDROOM COTTAGE, IN THE HISTORIC TOWN OF COLYTON - £550,000

FORTNAM Smith and Banwell are pleased to be offering to the market Willhayne Cottage, Colyton. Originally converted to residential accommodation in 1948, this is a truly interesting and unique property which has been thoughtfully developed initially from two outbuildings and extended into a third outbuilding in the 1960s.

As such, it retains many character features, including extensive parquet and quarry tiled flooring and wooden panel internal doors. The current vendors have made a number of sympathetic improvements to the property over the 14 years that they have lived there, most notably the addition of a beautiful hardwood 'Amtega' conservatory which includes some lovely wrought iron detailing, cleverly concealed roof blinds and underfloor heating.

The property benefits from oil-fired central heating plus an LPG gas-fired cooking hob and has efficient wooden double glazed windows.

There are also two wood burning stoves, one in each of the main reception rooms.

The grounds of the property extend to approximately 2.5 acres and include a 2-acre field which drains particularly well and has been used in the past as a successful vineyard. There is a double garage with pitched, tiled roof built in the 1990s, a potting shed with log store and good-sized wooden stable and summer house.

Willhayne Cottage is in a beautiful semi-rural location within walking distance of Colyton Town. It is a substantial property which offers generously proportioned accommodation and land suitable for a number of uses. We would recommend viewing at your earliest convenience.

SPOTLIGHT

SPOTLIGHT ON MY SERVICE

Lindy Parry

Podiatrist / Chiropodist

I HOLD my private chiropody clinic at Townsend House Surgery in Seaton on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays.

I offer a range of treatments from a simple nail cut to nail surgery, and each treatment plan is priced accordingly.

The nail cutting only service is a shorter appointment and is ideal for those that don't have any other foot care needs. Others like to alternate nail cuts with chiropody treatments as it best suits their requirements. I always aim to work with the patient to find the best treatment plan to suit each individual. Patients feet are then monitored during treatment so that changes can be made should the need arise.

Diabetic patients who attend for chiropody will also have a diabetic foot assessment carried out during their first treatment, and will then be monitored and re-assessed as necessary.

My chiropody clinics are available to anybody seeking help with their feet and Townsend House and I look forward to welcoming you.

The Standard for Luxury, Design and Dynamics

THE XJ, Jaguar's all-aluminium luxury saloon, is more desirable than ever.

Subtle changes to the exterior design, accentuated by full LED headlights, add to the XJ's already distinctive looks. Materials such as semi-aniline leather and inlay veneers enhance an interior already considered the most luxurious in the segment, culminating in the new Autobiography model.

Matching this traditional craftsmanship is state-of-the-art technology, including a new infotainment system. InControl Touch Pro offers features such as door-to-door navigation and 1,300W Meridian digital audio system.

The driving experience is better than ever, thanks to a V6 diesel engine which offers more power and torque and less fuel consumption and CO2 emissions, and an electric power-assisted steering system that enhances Jaguar's reputation for unrivalled agility and responsiveness.

"More dynamic and distinctive than ever, we've engineered our flagship saloon to deliver even greater levels of luxury and performance.

"Featuring our new world-class infotainment system, interior materials and finishes which create an even more bespoke feel, and with our higher output, lower emissions diesel engine, the XJ rewards drivers and passengers like no other luxury car."

The new XJ features a larger, more upright grille, while sculpted chrome blades in the outboard air intakes emphasise the car's mature, prestigious character.

The full LED headlights accentuate the 'quad lamp' design feature that Jaguar sporting sedans have made their own. They are further enhanced with active front steer and static bend lamp functions, and auto high beam assist. LED headlights also provide a colour temperature closer to that of daylight than Bi-Xenon lamps, improving visibility and driver comfort, and are also more energy-efficient. Twin 'J-Blade' daytime running lights are a unique feature to XJ, befitting its status in the Jaguar saloon car range. The white light instantly and seamlessly changes to orange when the direction indicator is operated.

The LED rear lights feature a new J-signature tail and position light graphic, making the XJ even more distinctive. The rear bumper now features a gloss black valance and a slender chrome insert. New LED taillights and oval exhaust finishers complete the look.

New Avensis: Prestige, Comfort and Efficiency

▲ Toyota Avensis (2015 - Current)

THE new Toyota Avensis aims to make things easy for the customer, with new style, new engines and innovative technology. Regardless of version or equipment grade, it is designed to be prestigious and trustworthy.

Designed and engineered in Europe and built exclusively in Britain, more than 1,711,800 Avensis across four model generations have appeared on European roads since the original was launched at the end of 1997.

Quality durability and reliability have always been among Avensis's strongest suits, reflected in the current model achieving consistently high QDR ratings and the highest score in last year's J.D. Power Vehicle Ownership Satisfaction Survey in Germany.

Although Avensis has traditionally appealed to private customers, it's the fleet market that easily commands the largest proportion of sales, accounting for 75 per cent of D-segment business in Europe.

STYLING

Both the new Avensis saloon and Touring Sports wagon have a more distinctive and dynamic appearance, generated by a new Energetic Elegance design theme.

Overall vehicle length has been increased by 40mm and at the front there is a strong new look that marks a "second generation" evolution of Toyota's contemporary design language.

The Toyota emblem is set more prominently within a smaller but sharper-styled upper grille. The grille itself has a chrome trim bar which anchors new LED headlamp clusters. These incorporate LED daytime running lights, giving new Avensis an individual illumination signature.

The lower grille has been made significantly larger and it spans a centre bumper section finished in gloss black, reinforcing Avensis's solid front stance. In conjunction with the downward sweep of the new grille, the fog lamp housings have been pushed out to the far edges of the bumper, making the vehicle appear broader.

To the side, a new garnish along the sill creates a strong horizontal emphasis, giving the impression of a lower centre of gravity. The more elegant profile is supported by new alloy wheel designs.

The rear of the vehicle has also been designed to add elegance and impact to the broad road stance. The rear light clusters use LED light guide technology to generate a high-tech lighting signature.

SENSORY QUALITY, HARMONY AND COMFORT

One of Toyota's aims in creating the new Avensis was to guarantee comfort and convenience across the range. The elegant, refined interior makes an important contribution to this goal: sensory quality and NVH have been taken to a higher level and there are new, premium quality trim finishes.

The instrument panel is divided into two sections. The sleek, full-width upper part contains an instrument binnacle with recessed tachometer and speedometer dials either side of a large, 4.2-inch TFT multi-information display (colour display on higher grades, monochrome on Active grade). The lower section houses a centre console that is separated from the transmission tunnel and dominated by an eight-inch full colour touchscreen. A redesigned steering wheel and gear lever complete the driver's cockpit.

Switchgear feel and operation have been improved and sensory quality has been further heightened by harmonising graphics and symbols and providing uniform, blue backlighting.

Satin chrome highlighting on the instrument binnacle, steering wheel, console switchgear, air vents and gear lever presents a crisper, higher quality appearance.

A new range of more appealing interior finishes is available, including combinations of fabric or leather with Alcantara seat upholstery (a first for the Avensis's class) and a new, Dual Ambient light grey colour scheme.

The cabin is further improved with the introduction of a new front seat design, making for more comfortable long-distance travel – a priority for fleet/business customers.

Technology research project to detect, predict and share data on potholes

JAGUAR Land Rover is researching a new connected car technology that will allow a vehicle to identify the location and severity of potholes, broken drains and manhole covers, and then share this data in real-time via the cloud with other vehicles and with road authorities to help them prioritise repairs.

If a car can receive a warning from another vehicle about severe potholes or broken manholes ahead, then drivers would be able to slow down and avoid the danger – or the car could adjust suspension settings to reduce the impact and smooth the ride. This could help reduce the potential for punctures, wheel and vehicle damage as well as road accidents.

Dr Mike Bell, Global Connected Car Director, Jaguar Land Rover, said: “Our MagneRide equipped Range Rover Evoque and Discovery Sport vehicles feature sophisticated sensors that allow the vehicle to profile the road surface under the wheels and identify potholes, raised manholes and broken drain covers. By monitoring the motion of the vehicle and changes in the height of the suspension, the car is able to continuously adjust the vehicle’s suspension characteristics, giving passengers a more comfortable ride over uneven and damaged road surfaces.

“While this gives our customers a more comfortable ride, we think there is a huge opportunity to turn the information from these vehicle sensors into ‘big data’ and share it for the benefit of other road users. This could help prevent billions of pounds of vehicle damage and make road repairs more effective.”

PREDICTING POTHOLES ON THE ROAD TO AUTONOMOUS DRIVING

The next stage of the project at Jaguar Land Rover’s Advanced Research Centre in the UK is to install new road surface sensing technology in the Range Rover Evoque research vehicle, including an advanced forward-facing stereo digital camera.

“At the moment the most accurate data comes from when the car has driven over the pothole or manhole”, added Mike Bell. “So we are also researching how we could improve the measurement and accuracy of pothole detection by scanning the road ahead, so the car could predict how severe they are before the vehicle gets near them.

“Ultimately, sensing the road ahead and assessing hazards is a key building block on our journey to the autonomous car. In the future, we are looking to develop systems that could automatically guide a car around potholes without the car leaving its lane and causing a danger to other drivers. If the pothole hazard was significant enough, safety systems could slow or even stop the car to minimize the impact. This could all help make future autonomous driving a safe and enjoyable reality.”

Added efficiency for Volkswagen’s Passat as BlueMotion models join the range

VOLKSWAGEN is boosting the appeal of its multi-award-winning Passat and Passat Estate ranges with the addition of ultra-efficient BlueMotion variants. Both saloon and Estate models return 76.3 mpg and emit just 95 g/km of carbon dioxide.

Such efficiency is made possible thanks to the installation of a modified version of the Passat’s entry-level 1.6-litre TDI 120 PS engine with SCR, as well as BlueMotion modifications. The engine’s maximum power is produced at 3,600 rpm, with torque of 250 Nm developed at 1,750 rpm. Standstill to 62 mph takes 10.8 seconds, while top speed is 130 mph – slightly greater than for the standard 1.6-litre engine, meaning there is no compromise in performance for the BlueMotion version. In Estate guise, the same is true with 0 to 62 mph in 11 seconds and a top speed of 129 mph exceeding those of the standard 1.6-litre car. The 1.6-litre TDI BlueMotion is available in combination with a six-speed manual gearbox only.

Based on the entry-level S model, all BlueMotion Passat models feature a Post-Collision Braking System, mis-fuelling prevention and Driver Alert, as well as Volkswagen’s 6.5-inch ‘Composition Media’ infotainment system. Stop/Start and battery regeneration systems are also standard on board, while the BlueMotion adds 17-inch ‘Soho’ alloy wheels with super-optimised low rolling resistance tyres, sports suspension (lowered by 15 mm), unique BlueMotion front and rear bumpers and BlueMotion badging and chrome grille highlights.

Prices for the BlueMotion model start at £23,200 RRP OTR for the Passat saloon and rise to £24,750 for the Estate.

Passat and Passat Estate BlueMotion models are available to order now, with first deliveries expected in August. For more details please visit your nearest Volkswagen Retailer or go to www.volkswagen.co.uk.

Clio Renaultsport 220 Trophy

RENAULT today reveals the pricing and specification for the hotly awaited Clio Renaultsport 220 Trophy, the exclusive new flag-bearer of the Clio range which was one of the star attractions of the 2015 Geneva Motor Show.

The 220 Trophy, which will make its UK debut at the Goodwood Festival of Speed from June 25-28, will deliver 220hp for less than £22,000 (£21,780) and is aimed at track-day enthusiasts and drivers who demand cutting-edge performance, handling, style and equipment for road use. Order books are open now, with first UK deliveries expected in August.

At the same time there have been revisions to the Clio Renaultsport 200 models, with the introduction of EU6-compliant engines featuring Stop&Start. Torque, fuel economy and CO2 emissions have all improved, with the result that the cars now attract a lower BIK rating and VED band.

10 per cent power hike for Trophy engine

The Clio Renaultsport 220 Trophy is a numbered special edition model that sits at the top of the Clio Renaultsport range. It features a larger turbocharger and revised mapping compared with the 200 models, boosting the outputs of the 1.6-litre direct-injection turbo engine by 20hp (10 per cent) and 20Nm (8.5 per cent) to 220hp and 260Nm, with a further 20Nm available through the 'Torque Boost' feature in fourth and fifth gears.

There is also a revised air intake and exhaust system to minimise back-pressure losses. The rev limit has been raised to 6,800rpm as opposed to 6,500rpm in the 200 versions, with peak power arriving at 6,050rpm. Maximum torque is available at only 2,000rpm. Boost pressure has been increased from 0.96 bar to 1.03 bar. This all translates into a 0-62mph time of 6.6 seconds on the way to a top speed of 146mph.

This more potent and higher-revving version of the Clio Renaultsport power unit is fully EU6-compliant and features Stop&Start, helping towards excellent fuel economy and emissions figures for such a high-performance car of 47.9mpg on the official NEDC combined cycle and 135g/km.

A further contributor to this is the standard Efficient Dual Clutch (EDC) gearbox, which, for the 220 Trophy, has been substantially recalibrated by the performance experts at Renaultsport. It now delivers up to 50 per cent faster shifts and permits greater flexibility in Sport mode for more comfortable driving in built-up areas. The steering wheel-mounted paddles have been revised with 30 per cent shorter travel in order to provide a more immediate and responsive feeling. The higher rev limit along with new software calibration allows earlier down changes under heavy braking during track use.

The Clio Renaultsport 220 Trophy is fitted with the R.S. Drive system with Normal, Sport and Race settings. Stop&Start is deactivated in Sport and Race modes. R.S. Drive permits multiple downshifts when the appropriate paddle is continuously held and also features Launch Control. In Race mode, the gearchange is a manual-only operation; it will not kickdown or change up at the rev limiter without intervention by the driver.

A lower and stiffer chassis with quicker steering

As befits a car designed for maximum enjoyment on race tracks as well as public roads, the 220 Trophy has firmer and lower suspension and faster steering than other Clio models.

The Trophy setting is lowered by 20mm at the front and 10mm at the rear. To put that into perspective, the Cup chassis on the regular Clio Renaultsport is only 3mm lower than the standard set-up. The dampers of the 220 Trophy are firmer and there are 40 per cent stiffer rear springs coupled to motorsport-derived hydraulic bump stops – a feature carried over from the regular 200. The car also has the R.S. Diff to maintain traction in difficult conditions or extreme high-performance track use.

Somerset twins in line for England debuts

Defeats for Chard and Ilminster but win takes North Perrott up to second

LOCAL CRICKET NEWS

Somerset 2nds Inns 158
 (P.Coughlin 4-10).

Somerset (4pts) lost to Durham
 (19pts) by 120 runs.

SOMERSET slipped to their fourth LV County Championship defeat of the season as they were beaten title-chasing hosts Durham inside three days up at Chester-le-Street.

Having secured a 36-run first innings lead the Cidemen had the hosts in trouble at 101 for 6 in their second innings.

But some indifferent bowling in the final session of day two allowed them to escape and post 314 with John Hastings smashing a belligerent 79 and Paul Collingwood showing all his experience to compile 58 at the crucial time.

With the pitch deteriorating a target of 279 look challenging, and so it proved.

Marcus Trescothick (35) and James Hildreth (28) took the score up to 63 for 2. But once they were split the innings subsided to 158 all out.

One bright note was 35 from Peter Trego who took the 33-year-old all-rounder through 7,500 first class career runs.

The defeat, allied to Hampshire's victory at Hove, sees Somerset slip to the bottom of the table.

 (Saturday, June 13th)

THE disappointment of Chris Gayle's withdrawal due to 'His immense workload over the past twelve months and a slight back issue' for what was scheduled to be his final match in Somerset colours was compounded by defeat in a rain affected game in Cardiff.

Chris Gayle's last scheduled home match was washed out without a ball being bowled.

Batting first, Tom Cooper's hard-hitting unbeaten 84 off just 40 balls (5x4, 6x6) was the highlight as the Cidemen were held to 159 for 6 from their 20 overs.

The rains came with the Welsh county on 43 for 1 from six overs which was enough to clinch a two-wicket win courtesy of messers Duckworth-Lewis.

After the game SCCC Director of Cricket Matt Maynard hinted that popular West Indian Gayle could return if the team was able to reach the closing stages of this season's T20 competition, he said: "Although slightly disappointed that Chris is unavailable for the Glamorgan game, his contribution to Somerset CCC during his stay has been immense."

"I would like to wish Chris all the best in the CPL and hope to see him back in Somerset colours later in the summer."

Gayle's scheduled replacement as overseas player Corey Anderson has returned to his native New Zealand for treatment on a back injury.

England calling for twins

CRAIG Overton received a call-up to England ODI squad for match against New Zealand at Southampton on Sunday.

The 21-year-old only made the 12th man's slot but is obviously in the selectors' plans for the future.

Amazingly this was followed on Monday when Overton's sibling twin Jamie was also added to the squad for the remaining two games of the series at Trent Bridge, Nottingham, tomorrow (Wednesday) and Durham on Saturday.

Meanwhile Somerset's Irish international left arm-spinner George Dockrell has begun a month's loan at Sussex.

Coming in on a month's loan is Hampshire keeper Michael Bates who made his debut in the current LV County Championship four-day match against Nottinghamshire.

WEPL
ILMINSTER skipper Sam Spuway's decision to ask visitors Taunton St Andrews backfired as his side were beaten by 101 runs at the Rec.

Two half-centuries helped the Saints post 236 for 6 from their 50 overs with Harry Montacute (2-54) and Sam Grinter (2 for 62) the most successful of the home attack while Louis Kraucamp (0-36) and James Thompson, in particular, bowled very economically.

The Ilminster reply began in disastrous fashion with Kraucamp (2), Josh Lee (0) and Craig Rice (0) all dismissed cheaply.

Spuway attempted to turn things around with a top-score 47 but had little support with only Charlie Vickery (36) and Jon Hutford (19) reaching double figures as the hosts were dismissed for 135 in the 35th over.

Ilminster 4pts Taunton St Andrews 20pts.

In Premier Two CHARD's total of 218 was passed by hosts Potterne in 32 and a half overs at the Grove Ground.

Tom Wright hit five 4s and a couple of maximums in a top-score 54 for Chard who recovered from 50 for 4 and 172 for 8 with skipper Scott Wells-Burr hitting 45 (4x4, 4x6) off just 38 deliveries.

Tom Wighton struck early with the ball and with Potterne at 9 for 1 there was a chink of an opportunity for the visitors, but that was quickly closed with opener Luke de Souza smashing a fine 102. Chard 6pts Potterne 22pts

A fine all-round performance from New Zealander Brett Johnson formed the backbone of NORTH PERROTT's four-wicket win at Uphill Castle to move within two points of the top of the table.

Johnson acclaimed 4 for 30 with his leg spin, with the quartet of victims all trapped in front and the hosts posted a round 200 having won the toss.

Josh Marshall-James also had a good afternoon with the ball taking 3 for 40.

In reply, openers Gordon Whorlow (34) and Alex Eckland (41) gave Perrott a firm foundation before an unbeaten 61 from Johnson saw them hope at 202 for 6 in the 46th over. North Perrott 21pts Uphill Castle 7pts.

CHARD 2nds are joint 3rd in the 2nd XI Division One after a hard-fought three wicket win over visitors Potterne 2nds.

Having won the toss the visitors posted 198 with Andrew Sochoh (3-22), Neil Rogers (3-56), Andrew Clancy (2-19) and Ryan Clegg (2-25) all amongst the wickets.

Both Chard openers were back in the hutch with 39 on the board but a steady batting performance with seven players in double figures saw Chard reach 204 for 7 with Liam Cleal (38no) clearing the ropes for a second time to hit the winning runs.

Earlier Jon Dalwood had top-scored with a vital 48 (4x4, 1x6). Chard 2nds 22pts Potterne 2nds 7pts.

Meanwhile, half-centuries from skipper Alan Sims (67) and Luke Dopson (58) helped ILMINSTER 2nds to a four wicket win at Frome 2nds in the Bristol & Somerset 2nd XI Division.

Earlier, Frome had racked up 219 for 8 from their 45 overs with Sims claiming 3 for 37.

At 16 for 2 in reply Ilminster were in a degree of trouble but a fourth wicketstand of 124 between Sims and Dopson swung the game the way of the visitors who reached 220 for 6 in 44 overs. Ilminster 2nds 21pts Frome 2nds 8pts.

Chard won on two rinks, drew on one and lost on one thereby adding nine points to their current tally.

Chard Short Mat Bowlers travelled to HEMYOCK for a friendly match last Wednesday.

There was some confusion and miscommunication so Chard thought they were only playing on two mats and not three.

Everything was resolved as it was decided to play on two mats with teams of four. Chard borrowed two of Hemyock's players to complete the teams.

It was a very close match with each team winning two games but Hemyock just took the evening by one point (Chard 22 Hemyock 23).

MERRIOTT SMBC

with Ann Weeks
IN February the Club learned of the sudden death of one of its members, Jackie Mitchell, who also played for Crewkerne SMBC. It was agreed between the two clubs that a shield in her memory should be initiated and played for annually.

Last week, Merriott hosted the inaugural match with invited guests being Jackie's daughter, Wendy Mitchell and husband, as well as Geoff Nixon who is the vice chairman of Somerset SMBA and who helped set up Merriott Club in 1995 as well as Crewkerne in the early part of this century.

The match was played with great intent on both sides, but at the interval the hosts were a long way behind. However, in the second half everything came together and the home team ended victorious by 51-41 including a hot shot.

The trophy was presented to match Captain, Robin de Winter by Wendy. A total of 30 players, and guests enjoyed a light buffet supplied members and friends.

AXMINSTER with David Harris
AXMINSTER have undergone an enjoyable if not successful period of late.

In the Devon League we lost 27-43 away at NORTH TAWTON with a narrow win 14-13 for George Mabon, David Harris & Derek Pheby.

We then enjoyed an excellent 42-30 home win against TIVERTON BOROUGH with a 26-9 win for Tony Cable, David Harris & Doug Looskan.

The men were drawn away to SIDMOUTH in the County Top Club KO Competition - always a difficult fixture - and went down 1-4 with only the pairs team of Steven Apsey & Sid Milburn managing a win.

In the mixed friendlies we were down when rain curtailed play with Morrison Brown, Clayton & Sid Milburn the only trio ahead (17-14).

We then lost at 48-72 home to DUNKESWELL managing only two ties - Barbara Mowatt, John Hill & Brian Clark (15-15) and Morrison Brown, Ken Quick & Margaret Crompton (14-14) before losing 55-70 at Season with a 15-10 win for Morrison Brown, David Harris & Bridgett Hallowed and a 19-19 tie for Howard Keep, Margaret Brown & Doug Looskan.

Our next scheduled game at KINGSTEIGHTON was unfortunately rained off.

Our bad run of friendly defeats continued at CHARMOUTH in the final game of this period with a 46-88 loss with only Joan Quick, David Harris & Ken Quick managing a win (27-15).

On a brighter note Phil White, David Harris & Ann Clayton got through to the next round of the County mixed triples with a win against a Season trio.

Hill returns as coach

HONITON RFC have started their planning for next season and have re-appointed Callum Hill as their player-coach for the 2015/16 campaign.

Having had a previous successful stint at the club, Callum takes over from Jason Hannay who has stepped down due to work commitments but will continue as a player.

Hill takes over having had a season out of rugby and comes back with re-charged batteries and a full commitment to the club.

Honiton's last campaign was a difficult one as they had to come to terms with the loss of several players who had gone to more senior clubs to further their careers.

This season, with few announced departures and the influx of several players from the very successful colts side, Honiton hope to be able to regroup and gain a top half finish this outing.

Joining Hill in the management team are Paul Parrott who moves up from his successful tenure as the colts administration role, and Phil Oaten who has joined the team by agreeing to manage the second string.

Hill has called a players meeting at the club on Tuesday, June 23rd at 7pm when new players are welcome.

Half dozen join Devon League

SIX new clubs were accepted by the Fresha Devon & Exeter League at Friday night's annual general meeting. ASHWATER from West Devon, CRANBROOK, EXMOUTH SPARTANS, MILLWEY RISE from the Perry Street League, POLONIA (Exeter) and STOKE ARMS UNITED (Exeter).

A further nine Reserve teams and third teams were also accepted which has forced the League to bring back its Division Nine.

CHARD TOWN RESERVES won the Bill Rees Memorial Trophy for sportsmanship in Premier Division clubs having recorded an average referees mark of 87.7 out of 100. As the League is gearing up to apply for Step 7 status for their Premier division next season, a number of tough decisions had to be taken. The University Reserves were relegated to Division One with their three other teams also dropping back a division.

League chairman Mr Roger Spray explained why the decision, taken at the SGM in February had since been rescinded. The original plan was to have two divisions of Reserve teams with Premier Division One and Division Two becoming a first teams only membership.

However after receiving further information from the FA the League have reverted back to last season's format and deferred any such change.

Uplozman surge clear at the top

Pool A

UNBEATEN Uplozman extended their lead at the top of pool A to four points with a 50-36 win over challengers Signs South West.

By half way Uplozman had overcome their deficit to take a 26-25 lead. Mandy Norman had a lively game for the winners whilst Faye Hawkins took the plaudits for SSW.

The other game resulted in a 49-49 draw between Otter Valley and Beer Blazers.

OVD perseverance paid off as they gradually reduced their starting arrears to pull level in the final quarter thanks to good work from Sarah Dyer, with Alex Adkin having a fine game for Beer.

Pool B

HOWDEN Hawks and Hi Q played out a 48-48 draw. Jo Channing played well for Hi Q who set out to chase down their starting deficit.

With Nicki Vile having a fine game for Howden it was tough going for Hi Q and it wasn't until the final quarter they managed to pull level and finished all square.

Both teams are on seven points and realistically only having an outside chance of a top two finish.

The other game of the night saw Sidmouth Toucans Chicks move clear in top spot when they maintained their unbeaten run with a 75-51 win over bottom placed Pixies.

The Chicks had started with a 10-goal lead but they increased this throughout the game to finish with a 75-51 win and put them in a strong position to finish in the promotion places.

The Chicks' star was Emily Rudolph whilst Natalie Shahyiah was the standout player for Pixies.

Seniors with Rob Grove

The second round of the Seniors Masters competition confirmed what many of us had considered at the outset – that the pre-tournament favourite and the more consistent golfers would rise to the top of the leader board.

In good golfing conditions but with the threat of storms ahead, most of the players were grateful to have finished their round before the rain came and it was good to see that so many finished their game with a full scorecard and avoided the dreaded "nil return".

The ever consistent Tony Strong with yet another net 70 (7) leads the way with Gerry Turner producing a steady 71 (12) coming second from Bob Cook who also scored 71 (24).

At least Bob had the satisfaction of winning the Warren Cup which was played in conjunction with the main competition and is for players of 21 and above handicap.

Tony completed his fine day with the only two of the competition.

There are still 28 players in the competition who could yet wrest the title from the favourite but the signs are ominous and it will be up to them all to contest just the minor placings.

HONITON with Liz Rogers

ON Saturday, June 6th the Club held their annual BMW (Westerley) sponsored Captain's Charity Open.

A brilliant day was enjoyed by the players who turned out in force to support The Baton Charity.

Royal Marine Commando erected and staffed a Camp Kitchen providing bacon, egg and burger rolls to players on the course at the 11th hole.

Charity volunteers including founder Alan Rowe who mingled with players sharing awareness and information on the Charity.

Junior member Ben Phillips, together with Dominic Allen a member from Yelverton Golf Club, emerged as winners with an impressive 42 points.

The day got even better when Dominic, (13) who beat the rest of the field with the longest drive down the 18th hole to win a he use of a BMW motor vehicle to and from the he 2016 BMW PGA Championship at Wentworth.

A fantastic prize table was up for grabs with some great prizes donated by the sponsors. These included tickets to the 2016 BMW PGA Championship at Wentworth and the use of a BMW motor vehicle to and from the event.

Men's Section: The Men's teams have continued their fine form.

In the prestigious Devon Palatret Knockout on Sunday, May 31st Honiton defeated the Royal North Devon Club at Yelverton to move into the next round.

The following week the team won a Dartmoor League match 3-2 at Okehampton to remain top of the division.

Mixed Section: OVER 40 members played for the Geoff & Sheila Banks Trophy which was presented to the Tuesday Mixed by Geoff in memory of his wife Sheila who ran the Mixed Tuesday Competitions for many years.

The format is the very popular Treble Six Stableford – holes 1-6 Betterball, 7-12 Greensomes and 13-18 Foursomes.

The successful pair to claim the trophy were Jean Smith & Andy Sharland who carded 41 points – this included Jean scoring five points on a Par 3 in the Betterball section.

The 2nd, 3rd and 4th places were all decided on countback. In 2nd place were Linda McLaughlin & Peter Clarke. In 3rd were Dot Grove & Brian Morrison with Di Wall & Bob Barnes in 4th.

Geoff then presented the Trophy to Jean and Andy and then gave a "random card prize", which was won by Maureen Tollemache & Cyril Dann.

Ladies Section: The Ladies competed in glorious weather in the Ping competition where format for the day was Betterball, played in pairs off 3/4

handicap.

Two pairs scored 36 points but the winners on countback were Olwen Eaton & Janet Hughes.

Runners up were Tricia Swindell & Jacqui Seager while Stephanie Barnes & Liz Wood took the final place with 30.

The first Ladies Open of the season took place in very favourable weather conditions with 132 ladies, representing 29 clubs competing in teams of three in a Stableford competition.

Seniors Section: The annual Seniors' Masters Championship was played in conjunction with a Stableford competition.

To qualify for the Masters competition players must have achieved a first or second place in an individual competition during the previous season.

CRR's out in force!

with Paul Masters

WAYNE Loveridge, Louis Worth, Matt Baker, Sarah Smith, Miranda Coleberd and Chan Chant represented CRR in the for the local YEOVILTON 5K series.

Loveridge headed the team home while Worth bettered his 5k PB by seconds against a strong wind. Next to set a PB was Baker while Smith was within seconds of her best.

The next event was the SOUTH DOWNS WAY 100 ULTRA MARATHON.

Maria & Christopher Wadey and Lynn Cunningham set off to Winchester to Run the 100 miles along the SDW to Eastbourne with the target to reach the finish line in Eastbourne within 30 hours.

At 54 miles Maria suffered problems with her knee that reduced her pace so Lynn started to edge ahead to complete the challenge in 25:58m hours while Chris and Maria crossed the line together in 27:42 hours.

Meanwhile Richard Clifton travelled as far west as he could for the EnduranceLife "Classic Quarter" Ultra Marathon along the south Cornish coast.

This 44-mile run started at Lizard Point and then ran along the challenging coastal paths to Land's End, the task for the day was brutally simple: to run non-stop from the Southern-most point of England (Lizard Point), to the western most tip (Land's End). With over 7000 feet of elevation gain along the route pacing was a key element of Richard's run, which he completed in 32nd/267 place and a fantastic 3rd in age category time of 8:40:13.

Bernie Genge and Emma Male were next off the line for CRR's at the LANGPORT LDWA WALKING/RUN FESTIVAL, starting off from Bow Street, Langport.

This marathon route took walkers and runners alike out across the Somerset Levels, Bowden and Ham Hills around Langport. This self-navigation route was a challenge from the off and caused a few issues in the early miles with the CRR's but enjoyment was the winner.

Sunday had CRR's heading off to Yeovilton for the the Inaugural running of the two-lap YEOVIL ROAD MARATHON with Nina Wagstaff, Martin Holley, Jeremy Taylor, Bernie Genge and Paul Masters heading out around the lanes of Yeovilton.

Heading off first was Jeremy Taylor who had completed a 1200-mile cycle trip from Land's End to John O'Grouts on Friday, this began to take its toll later in the race.

Martin Holley who was setting a great pace with his push for a PB, Nina Wagstaff was next running with Paul Masters both pushing hard. At 14 miles Masters had to pull out of the race but Wagstaff steadily moved up the field and with Taylor starting to feel the exertions of his cycle ride Wagstaff passed by and crossed the line first for CRR's and secured second placed Female.

Next across the line was Holley securing a new PB by a full eight minutes, Taylor was just behind and, in his second marathon in two days, and 86th overall Genge came in after yet another well paced run.

Mel & Colin Boarder, Matt Baker, Richard Lovelock, Chan Chant, Miranda Coleberd headed to Martock for the TOTAL BUZZ 10K.

This flat 10k brought in some great results PB's for Lovelock, both Boarder's, Baker, Coleberd. Andy & Dee Mear and Kirsti Ball were amongst the 1500 competitors who ran the Colour run at Hazelgrove school.

This all inclusive run takes in sections of the route that have coloured powder thrown with the aim for runners to show their colours to support the St Margaret's Hospice charity.

CRR's last outing of the weekend saw Kate Beaumont and Julie Bindon off to Thurlbear for The Piddle Plod Trail race, in which two laps of Piddle Wood along forest tracks and country lanes was a real 10k challenge for hill lovers.
